Subject: Offer of Employment — Software Engineer (L5)

Dear Alex,

We are pleased to offer you the position of Software Engineer (L5) at OpenA1. You will join the Reasoning team, reporting to Dr. Lena Park, Research Lead. Your start date will be June 2, 2026, and your primary work location will be our San Francisco, CA office.

Compensation. Your compensation package is summarized in the table below.

| Component        | Details                                      |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| Base Salary      | $340,000 per year, paid semi-monthly        |
| Equity (PPUs)    | $2,200,000 total grant vesting over 4 years |
| Vesting Schedule | 6-month cliff, quarterly vesting thereafter  |

Benefits. Your benefits are effective on your first day and include medical, dental, and vision coverage, a 401(k) plan with employer match, unlimited paid time off, an annual learning and development stipend, and commuter benefits.

Conditions. This offer is contingent upon a satisfactory background check and proof of work authorization. Employment with OpenA1 is at-will, meaning either party may end the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause or notice.

Acceptance. Please indicate your acceptance by signing and returning this letter no later than April 2, 2026.

We are excited about the impact you will have on our mission to ensure artificial general intelligence benefits all of humanity.

Sincerely,

David Nguyen
VP of Engineering
